

SAT Word	Definition	Sentence Use
Haphazard	Lacking Organization	The haphazard troops were easily captured.
Comprehensive	Includes all aspects of something, complete.	The General's comprehensive knowledge led to the victory of the battle.
Pernicious	Having a harmful effect.	The pernicious boll weevil destroyed thousands of cotton plantations.
Daunting	Seemingly difficult to deal with; discouraging.	The daunting steps to finally completely rid our economy from war debts is a long walk.
Prolonged	Continuing for a long time.	The prolonged Great Depression lasted for more than a decade.
Inviolable	Free from harm or injury.	The inviolable Roseto villagers had a strong environment.
Provoke	To let emotions rise especially in a form of anger.	The Germans provoked the United States by sinking the Lusitania.
Endurance	To last or have durability.	The endurance of the soldier's will to fight lasted years.
Incentives	Motivation or encouragement to do something.	The incentive to keep buying stocks came from the resulting money.
Counterintuitive	To do opposite of what would be expected or make sense.	The Libertyship drove north before it returned to its path toward the South.
Remedial	Intended to correct or improve deficient skills.	The remedial of veterans was given through the GI bill.
Desultory	Lacking a plan, purpose or enthusiasm; unfocused.	The desultory Governor signed the wrong bill into a law.
Ostracize	To exclude someone from a society or group.	African Americans in the 1900s were heavily ostracized.
Arbitrary	Something is randomly selected.	The arbitrary judge did not fill the criteria.
Prowess	A skill or expertise in an activity or field. Bravery in battle.	The prowess of Eugene Jacques Bullard was admirable.
Inclination	A way that someone feels about something.	The inclination of nationalism was very strong in most Americans.

SAT Word	Definition	Sentence Use
Condescending	Acting in a way that shows superior actions toward others.	Alex William's condescending attitude toward the Doctor let him practice his skill of practical intelligence.
Miscegenation	The mixing of races.	Mulatos were the product of miscegenation.
Concubine	A woman who lives with a man, but is not legally married to him.	Concubines were not often seen during the 1800s.
Repugnant	Unacceptable, in conflict with.	The Nazis demonstrated repugnant behavior toward Jews when they put Jewish people in concentration camps.